The Essential Guide to Mortgage Law in New South Wales

Matthew Bransgrove & Marcus Young

This ready reference book guides the busy practitioner through the essential elements of the Torrens Title system as it operates in New South Wales

The Essential Guide to Mortgage Law in New South Wales is structured with reference to the authors' knowledge and vast experience in practice as mortgage lawyers. The emphasis in the text is on how to approach real problems relating to the law of mortgages. Topics that have dominated mortgage litigation, such as defences under the Contracts Review Act, are also given extensive treatment. Helpful references are provided to the Supreme Court Registry, Possession List and Land and Property Information practice.
